

WORKCOVER WHITECARD (CPCCOHS1001A)

Course Outline

This course specifies the outcomes required to undertake Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) induction training within the construction industry. It requires the ability to demonstrate personal awareness of OHS legislative requirements, and the basic principles of risk management and prevention of injury and illness in the construction industry.

Participants will undertake the following:

- ✓ Identify OHS legislative requirements
- ✓ Identify construction hazards and control measures
- ✓ Identify OHS communication and reporting processes
- ✓ Identify OHS incident response procedures

WorkCover Accreditation

Successful participants will be provided with a temporary Statement of Training and are also required to complete an Application for WorkCover Construction Induction Card form on the day of training. The $20.00 WorkCover administration fee is additional to the $100.00 NovaSkill course fee. Total cost $120
